The Selection Process

An independent committee appointed by ERM MASS oversees the Andjiga-Diffo-Moulen Prize.

- Each year, a call for applications is launched at least three months before the ERM MASS annual meeting.
- Any professor or researcher based in Cameroon, whether currently serving or retired, is eligible.
- ERM MASS may nominate a candidate with an exceptional track record for the second category of the award.

Award Ceremony

- For each award category, the nominees are officially announced before the ERM MASS annual meeting.
- The winners are announced during a plenary session where they receive a plaque of excellence and an additional reward.
- The winners will present their work during the annual meeting.
